BMI PARTNER SCHOOLS – AMONG 65 BEST IN BUSINESS EDUCATION

BMI is a partnership of 6 top international business schools offering a unique three-continental Executive MBA, Impactful Leadership & Decision-Making, Innovation & Industry 4.0 programmes for top managers and business owners, as well as open seminars, in-company trainings and other executive education solutions.

Since 1999, BMI has accompanied more than 5200 executives in 30 countries worldwide in their leadership journey, helping them better understand their role, test their boundaries and lay the foundations for long-term effectiveness.

BMI PARTNERS IN EMBA DESIGN & DELIVERY:

BMI Alumni is the exclusive Alumni Association of the BMI International Executive MBA, uniting participants from all cohorts of the programme, above all for networking and knowledge sharing.

Our mission is twofold:

- we develop business and social networking opportunities among BMI EMBA graduates and students, thus enhancing the quality of leadership in all areas where members are active
- we support BMI in its work to improve management quality and culture in the region as a way to accelerate economic development and integration with the world economy

*Co-Chairman of the BMI Board
Managing Partner, Ellex Valiūnas*

Life at BMI is dynamic.

It has to be, because the executives we develop support face a rapidly evolving global competitive landscape. Amid the changes, it's good sometimes to pause and note what has already been achieved. A yearbook is perfect for that.

But the Board of BMI is always looking ahead. So much has been achieved in the past 18 years! Since the very first BMI International Executive MBA class, of which I'm proud to have been a part, some 750 executives have now completed the BMI EMBA and lead companies in over 30 countries. And thousands of high-level managers have benefited from BMI Executive Education programmes.

Not long ago we prepared a new strategic roadmap for BMI, for the period 2016-2020. We reflected on what has always made

BMI so unique, innovative and advanced – our international partner schools. We also examined the opportunities for growth, for offering even more value to our students, alumni and the business community.

The result is a plan, on the one hand, to expand the geography of our partner business schools – to ensure continued access to the world's leading professors, just the right venues for modules, and abundant mobility opportunities. At the same time, we intend to launch new programmes for business.

Prof. Jean-Paul Larçon

*Co-Chairman of the BMI Board
Professor, HEC Paris, France*

Reviewing 2016, an impressive advance I want to highlight regards the exchange experiences that BMI offers its students and alumni in collaboration with other top business schools around the world. The Global Mobility Scheme which BMI launched in 2015 has indeed been developing nicely to expand talented managers' horizons.

Last year the number of global venues for BMI studies grew to eight! That of course includes the BMI EMBA modules on three continents, in Vilnius, Shanghai and New Orleans, plus elective modules now in Frankfurt, New Delhi, Helsinki, Warsaw, and St. Petersburg.

That's eight countries and eight leading business schools – so far – in a growing network of module and mobility partners. At the same time, courses at BMI in Vilnius are being enriched by growing numbers of participants from those countries.

During 2016, more than 40 BMI students and alumni took advantage of the chance to learn and network at high-level modules in the USA, Poland, Finland and India. And 40 executive students from Russia and Poland joined the modules which BMI itself organised in Lithuania and China.

Based on what participants say about the great value they received, I think we'll continue to see these numbers grow.

Jaunius Pusvaškis

BMI Director General

The exclusive quality and cutting-edge contents of BMI's flagship International Executive MBA programme were made possible by leading European partner business schools.

That unique asset of partnership with top business schools is something we've enhanced and extended well beyond Europe, adding strong Asian and North American partners. I'm sure you've noticed, most recently, the diverse locations around the globe of our increasing numbers of module partners and mobility partner schools.

In 2016, BMI Executive Education built on BMI's extraordinary network of partnerships in terms of international professors, exposure and networking and launched two new BMI Executive Programmes:

- the "Innovation & Industry 4.0" programme, delivered in Frankfurt, Germany;
- the "Impactful Leadership & Decision-Making" programme, delivered in Vilnius, Lithuania and New Orleans, the US;

One great thing about these new offerings for business, and others which are planned, is that they're fully available for BMI alumni. In fact, quite a number of BMI alumni took part in our new programmes already last year. It proves that we are a trusted provider of quality executive programmes beyond EMBA.

BMI students and alumni are constantly doing great things – conquering new markets, winning international awards, and generally making us very proud.

We hope we are also making you proud with the continuing growth of BMI, and we are very happy to continue offering you the chance to acquire additional knowledge, skills and insight.

Enjoy this review of BMI's activities in 2016. And stay tuned for more exciting news as we continue moving forward.

Vaiva Tylienė

BMI Alumni Association President

Life is more than studies, business and career. Life is a totality, a balance of family, work and personal growth. In 2016 the BMI Alumni Association gave special attention to this balance – from the Gala Dinner with a family theme, to the Summer Adventure and other events where we invited members to come with family members, to gatherings focused on personal growth like visits to the theatre, meetings with art connoisseurs and even acquaintance with art collecting.

Things were more active than ever in 2016 – in terms of growing membership (including Business Members and two Partner Members), and also in terms of the number, variety and attendance of events. The BMI Alumni Council, after elections in April, not only continued established traditions, but also brought new direction and energy. The idea of organising events in thematic series proved quite successful: first one or two more theoretical sessions, then several practical ones and a "business case" at an alumni's business. During 2016 we had four series: on process management (Lean), people management, change management, and art value and investment. We'll continue those during 2017.

After such a good year, we'd like to especially thank our Partner Members for their support:

- Modus Group has not just been a key sponsor for several years now, but also organized a great event in the form of an orientation competition with CityBee cars.
- Baltic Amadeus is to thank for the fact that in 2017 we'll have a more modern, informative and convenient website at www.bmialumni.lt

We also thank all the members who have supported the association by choosing Business Membership. We had 145 of them this year, and hope their number will further grow in 2017.

Looking ahead, 2017 should be just as active and interesting. Alongside traditional events, we'll also focus more on IT and startups as well as health and sport. There will be events related to these areas and, for example, "IT and startups" will be the main theme of the Gala Dinner. Since more and more BMI alumni are starting their own businesses, we think this topic will be ever more relevant, and we'll certainly have a lot here to share and learn from each other.

Meanwhile, we urge all alumni to get involved – not just by becoming members or sponsors, but also with their ideas and initiatives.

Véronique Malleret

BMI Dean for Faculty and Research
Professor, HEC Paris, France

BMI not only helps develop true business leaders, but it has also begun contributing to the future of management education. It does so through the BMI Fund created to develop PhD students and management professors with support doctoral education in the Baltic region.

The BMI Fund finances an annual scholarship for studies at the Doctoral Department of HEC Paris, co-founder and primary partner of BMI. It's awarded to a student pursuing a PhD in management or a faculty member of a business school in the region. That person is enrolled in the special ISP programme for visiting scholars at HEC Paris.

I'm very pleased to note that during 2016 the first recipient of this scholarship from Lithuania successfully completed the ISP programme at HEC Paris. This one year spent at HEC Paris will of course be a significant "plus" in the academic career of this PhD student. It is also a very good opportunity, for the many international students and professors working at HEC, to discover the high level of Lithuanian higher education.

Meanwhile, an impressive new class of talented and ambitious managers began studies in the BMI International Executive MBA programme late in the year.

As you can read in this yearbook, the most recent EMBA cohorts stand out for their levels of seniority, years of experience and tremendous international exposure. They are well-placed to benefit from BMI's international professors and interaction with each other, and are already bringing value to BMI's growing family of business leaders.

The BMI International Executive MBA is a unique three-continent programme for high-level managers and business owners designed by top business schools worldwide and delivered in North America, Europe and Asia.

BMI EMBA Class XVI

began studies in 2014 and finished in 2016. It included executives of whom 78% are top or senior executives. With an average age of 36 at graduation, they manage companies with 15,000 employees, combined annual revenues of 3.2 billion euros and 387 million euros of profit. Many members of the cohort work for global business organizations such as Microsoft, Philip Morris, Statoil, Roche, EY, JTI and Hilti. Others help run some of the Nordic-Baltic region's best-known businesses, including Nordea, TEO LT, Valiunas Ellex, PZU, Blue Bridge and Danske Bank.

3.2

BMI EMBA VENUES:

BMI EMBA Class XVII

began studies in late 2015, will finish in 2017 and includes business executives and owners from Lithuania, Belarus, Latvia and Russia. 90% of cohort members are top managers and business owners, with an average 13 years of experience. The most highly represented industries in the group are ITT, finance, trade and logistics, followed by media, energy and pharmaceuticals. The group has a combined social network with more than 19,200 managers. They help run companies with annual revenues of about 3.75 billion euros.

90%

which began studies in late 2016, includes 45 executives of whom 91% are top-level and senior executives and many are business owners. They have an average age of 35, an average 13 years of experience and international exposure encompassing 58 countries. Among the numerous industries represented in the group, executives from ITT, finance and trade have the biggest presence, followed by manufacturing, energy and logistics. Some of the global business organizations that members of this newest BMI EMBA cohort work for are CSC, AIG, JTI, Tikkurila, Circle K, Avon Cosmetics and Deloitte. Others help run top businesses in the Nordic-Baltic such as ATEA, Teo, Omnitel, Valiunas Ellex, Euroapothea and Danske Bank.

BMI EXECUTIVE PROGRAMMES

BMI EXED programmes, seminars, and custom in-company trainings all empower companies and executives to better lead and succeed in today's rapidly evolving global marketplace. Cutting-edge knowledge, skills and vision are imparted by BMI's network of top international lecturer-practitioners.

Innovation & Industry 4.0 programme (NEW IN 2016!)

June-July, 2016

"Industry 4.0" is a new age of production and services managed by self-sustaining intelligent networks. It is revolutionizing competition and employment, much as previous technological revolutions did over the past 200 years.

This exclusive BMI programme in Frankfurt equips executives with cutting-edge knowledge on recent industrial developments influenced by the emergence of artificial intelligence and related transformations in the corporate life.

METHOD:

A programme for top and senior-level managers delivered in Germany, where the concept and reality of Industry 4.0 were born. Lectures are combined with visits to "smart factories" and meetings with industry leaders to give participants a close first-hand look at 'the fourth industrial revolution'.

CONTENT:

A detailed look at the business implications of convergence of the physical and the virtual worlds with new forms of human-machine interaction and business intelligence: the nature of artificial intelligence, AI-related business models, manufacturing execution systems, the Internet of Things, and more.

PARTICIPANTS:

35 executives from Germany, Baltics, Italy, India

Impactful Leadership & Decision-Making programme (NEW IN 2016!)

October, 2016 — January, 2017

Professors from the USA, France, and Switzerland deliver the modules, which approach leadership, impact and decision-making as a process. They give managers the knowledge and skills to lead effectively in their current roles and throughout their careers, ensuring financially sound and commercially viable decisions. Successful executives need to be aware of themselves, lead and coach their teams using a leadership style suited to the situation, and excel in quantitative decision-making skills to generate financial and competitive value.

METHOD:

A 3-month experience-based programme for top and senior-level managers delivered in Vilnius, Lithuania and, optionally, in New Orleans in the USA.

CONTENT:

Module 1: Making a Positive Impact
Module 2: Quantitative Decisions for Value Creation
Module 3: Effective Leadership

BENEFITS:

- Get a deeper understanding of leadership skills and levers
- Acquire skills and knowledge for convincing others more rapidly
- Discover an effective coaching and leadership style
- Develop quantitative skills to ensure your decisions are financially sound
- Understand how people make decisions and how to influence them

PROFESSORS:

- Keld Jensen, BMI EMBA & ExED, Thunderbird School of Global Management (USA)
- Anne Sylvie Knoertzer, BMI ExEd, EMLYON (France), INSEEC Paris (France), Leicester University in Dubai (UAE)
- Aad JCM van Vliet, BMI ExEd, Avvartas Partners GmbH

PARTICIPANTS:

29 members of the first cohort had an average age of 41 and an average 17 years of business experience in business; 80% were business owners and top executives.

BMI EVENTS 2016

Through free of charge public lectures and discussions for diverse groups of executives, BMI enables members of the business community to network and exchange ideas on topics of current interest.

BMI Presents...

Eurozone Opportunities and Challenges (28 JANUARY)

SPEAKER: Vitas Vasiliauskas, Bank of Lithuania Chairman and ECB Governing Council Member

The Baltic region is now part of the EU's single currency, with clear economic advantages. But more than a guarantee, the euro is an opportunity, "and now we're fully able to seize that opportunity," the central banker said. He also explained how further progress to create a single European market could bring even more benefits.

Effective Business Negotiations (23 MARCH)

SPEAKER: Osvaldas Čiukšys, International Negotiator

This lecture looked at keeping the initiative in negotiations in terms of the setting, team, and agenda, and using questions, emotions and suitable concessions to control the course of talks. On diverse cultures, Mr Čiukšys stressed a need to learn about each country's behaviours, values, mentality and decision-making processes.

Neuromarketing for Influence Online (19 OCTOBER)

SPEAKER: Linas Šiautkulis, CEO of BPN LT and Chairman of the Lithuanian Marketing Association

Neuroscience insights are being actively applied in e-commerce today, using words, images and different ways of arranging them to appeal to triggers in the human brain such as fight, flee, sex and food. Mr Šiautkulis described how such experiences are framed to engage website visitors' imagination and influence purchasing behaviour.

Bushido and the Art of Business (7 JUNE)

SPEAKER: Katsuoki Numata, former Managing Director, Citizen Holdings Co. [Japan]

The long-time head of a major precision equipment maker led this presentation of Japanese cultural insights on management, which BMI organized with the Embassy of Japan. He described the influence of the Bushido code of the samurai, sharing many personal experiences with international and intercultural management challenges.

Alumni Upgrade Sessions

Exclusively for BMI EMBA graduates

Management Control in Services (5 JANUARY)

SPEAKER: Prof. Véronique Malleret, HEC Paris [France]

Services play a growing role in business. But management control here is more complex than in manufacturing. Prof. Malleret, an expert on the topic, explained both the adaptation of traditional control methods and innovative approaches to assessing and improving the performance of service companies or service departments in companies.

Evolution of the Financial Industry (1 DECEMBER)

SPEAKER: Prof. Lars Ohnemus, CBS [Denmark]

Demographic trends, increasing regulation and FinTech startups have sparked a revolution in financial services that's likely to continue for years. Related challenges and opportunities were the topic of this lecture and discussion with BMI alumni, including executives from several banks, insurers and asset management companies.

BMI Insight Sessions

Valuing Digital Enterprises (14 APRIL)

SPEAKER: Prof. Eamonn Walsh, UCD [Ireland]

How do you put a value on web-based companies that have millions of users but aren't yet profitable? Investors shouldn't be lured by mere "dreams", but need to analyse them like any business, Prof. Walsh stressed. Using real cases, he illustrated ways to "unpack" diverse digital business models and assess the value of such firms.

BMI Executive Sessions

Defining an International Strategy (4 FEBRUARY)

SPEAKER: Prof. Alain Dumont, Tulane University [USA]

This lecture examined how to formulate an international strategy that is right for a specific company based on analysis of the type of international competition it faces. It was an excerpt from the "Global Strategy & Competition" course that Prof. Dumont leads in Tulane's Global MBA programme with 6 modules in 6 countries.

The USA as a Business Opportunity (3 JUNE)

SPEAKER: Prof. John Trapani, Tulane University [USA]

American consumers have kept on spending more and more despite two recessions over the past 15 years, Prof. Trapani said in this review of the U.S. economy – "an opportunity worth $18 trillion". Even if Europe isn't the biggest trade partner, it has a special bond with the USA, he said. "We know and trust each other," he explained.

Some Annual Highlights at BMI

JANUARY

BMI EMBA in the US

The USA module of the BMI EMBA programme took members of Class XVI to Tulane University's Freeman School of Business in New Orleans. There, with executive students from the USA and Chile, they completed courses on Managing People Internationally and Leadership.

"The agreement BMI signed with Freeman Business School in 2015 has added the vibrancy of the world's leading economy to our EMBA. Our evolving new partnerships with top global business schools puts BMI students in direct contact with executives and educators from North and South America, Europe and Asia for cutting-edge practical knowledge and business opportunities," BMI Director General Jaunius Pusvaškis said.

MARCH

BMI Contingent Gets Immersed in India

BMI students and alumni from 4 different cohorts got to know India's business climate first-hand during an 8-day module on the subcontinent organised together with Poland's Warsaw University of Technology Business School and Chandragupt Institute of Management Patna in India. This 'India Immersion Programme' included company visits, expert lectures and cultural outings in the cities of Bangalore, Mysuru and Delhi.

"We not only explored the Indian market, but also got new ideas about broader opportunities in today's global business world," said Laima Živatkauskaitė (BMI EMBA Class XVII), the Vice President of INIT Corporation and one of 9 executives from BMI who took part in the module.

FEBRUARY

Partnership in focus during High-Level NHH Meeting

BMI Director General Jaunius Pusvaškis and Dean for Faculty & Research, Veronique Malleret travelled to NHH Norwegian School of Economics, one of BMI's founding partner schools, in Bergen, Norway. In meetings with Rector Frøystein Gjesdal and other member of the NHH leadership, he shared BMI's experiences and discussed opportunities for further developing the two schools' valuable partnership.

APRIL

New EMBA Cohort Dances into the BMI Family

The newest BMI EMBA cohort – Class XVII – was officially welcomed into the BMI family of business leaders in a "christening" event organized by Class XVI and attended by members of several past cohorts. Mingling over food and drink led up to the highlight of the party: the screening and judging of dance videos made by teams from Class XVII.

Yes, dancing with passion to a pre-assigned song was this year's test of creativity for members of the new EMBA cohort. And they passed with flying colours, earning awards of all kinds by decision of the public and a distinguished jury of alumni and BMI staff.

MAY

Enhanced China Module Provides Boost

EMBA Class XVII completed an upgraded module on Chinese business practices and project management at Shanghai Jiao Tong University's Antai College of Economics and Management. For the first time, lectures were led not only by top Chinese professors, but also by faculty from HEC Paris. Also for the first time, two student executives from Poland's WUT Business School joined the BMI group.

Site visits included German optical device maker Carl Zeiss AG, the Chinese headquarters of AstraZeneca, Shanghai Tunnel Engineering, and a unit of Sany Group – one of the world's 5 biggest construction equipment manufacturers.

Finland's Aalto University Hosts Innovation Module

Representatives of BMI EMBA classes VII and XVI attended a module on "Leading Innovation & Building Innovation Powerhouses" at Aalto University School of Business in Helsinki, Finland. The mobility module also included student-executives from St Petersburg State University Graduate School of Management (GSOM).

JULY

Industry 4.0 Programme Initiated in Germany

BMI alumni and other executives from Germany, the Baltics, Italy, and India took part in the first edition of the "BMI Innovation & Industry 4.0 Programme" in Frankfurt. Its focus was the business implications of convergence of the physical and the virtual worlds with new forms of human-machine interaction and business intelligence.

The 35 participants visited 'smart factories' and firms set to blend virtual and physical worlds with cyber-physical systems, merging tech and business processes. They had lectures on artificial intelligence, related business models, manufacturing execution systems, and the Internet of Things.

SEPTEMBER

Back-to-School Gathering with Coaching Expert

BMI held its annual 'Back-to-School' evening of knowledge and networking. The event brings potential applicants together with BMI alumni and students for an EMBA Information Session, a talk by a top international professor, and informal interaction over snacks and drinks. This year's lecturer was Aad JCM Van VLIET, an expert business coach and HR executive whose topic was "The Leader as Coach".

NOVEMBER

Louvain School of Management May Add Mobility

BMI Director General Jaunius Pusvaškis visited the Belgian campus of long-time partner school Louvain School of Management. His talks with LSM leadership touched on BMI's successful experience in developing its International Executive MBA programme as well as future possibilities for executive-student exchanges between BMI and LSM within BMI's growing Global Mobility Scheme.

JUNE

Graduates Register More Than a Million Kilometres

The graduation of International Executive MBA Class XVI was attended by representatives of the BMI partner schools including HEC Paris, France and NHH, Norway as well as the business community.

"This is the BMI class that has most travelled the world, with trips totalling more than a million kilometres to attend modules in the USA, China, India, Finland, Poland and Russia," BMI Director General Jaunius Pusvaškis said. "They also gave the highest-ever approval rating of 92% to our international professors and achieved a record-high grade average for their master's theses," he noted.

AUGUST

BMI Mobility Partners Meet at HEC Paris

BMI founder HEC Paris hosted deans from two business schools participating in BMI's Global Mobility Scheme: St Petersburg Graduate School of Management from Russia and WUT Business School from Poland. The deans met in Paris with BMI Director General Jaunius Pusvaškis to discuss executive-student exchange arrangements. Mr Pusvaškis also met with HEC Paris officials to discuss BMI's ongoing collaboration with that top global business school.

OCTOBER

New BMI Leadership & Decision Making Programme Launches

Executives from leading Baltic, Nordic and global companies began three months of modular studies in the new "BMI Leadership & Decision-Making Programme".

Professors from the US, France, and Switzerland delivered the modules designed to give top managers the knowledge and skills to have greater impact, lead more effectively and make financially sound and commercially viable decisions. The 29 members of the first cohort had an average age of 41 and an average 17 years of business experience in business; 80% are business owners and top executives.

DECEMBER

Trends in Management Education in Focus

BMI Co-Chairman Prof. Jean-Paul Larçon, who long led international development at HEC Paris, gave a lecture on "Global Trends in Management Education" at the Embassy of France in Vilnius. The French-Lithuanian Chamber of Commerce organized the event with the embassy and BMI.

"Management education used to be quite local, but now the top business schools are absolutely global. You can see that at BMI, for example, which brings in top professors for each discipline from dozens of different countries and offers students a growing number of mobility or exchange opportunities around the world," Prof. Larçon noted.

11th Annual Gala Focuses on 'Family' Dimension of Being BMI Alumni

Kempinski Hotel Cathedral Square, Vilnius (7 April)

Alumni and their spouses came together at the luxurious Kempinski Hotel for the 2016 BMI Alumni Gala Dinner. This latest edition of the traditional annual event celebrated the strong bonds that members of the alumni community share.

"A family is about people who are always there for you, no matter what, to support and encourage and help – and that's what we find and promote as BMI Alumni, in professional and business life and not only there. We are a kind of family," BMI Alumni President Vaiva Tylienė explained.

As always, the Gala was an evening of fine dining, pleasant interaction and, of course, special awards.

- Artūras Abromavičius of BMI EMBA Class IV was made a MEMBER OF HONOUR of the BMI Alumni Association to recognize his long, active and fruitful involvement.
- The CAREER OF THE YEAR AWARD for 2016 went to Skirmantas Mačiukas, now Managing Director at Circle K Lietuva (formerly named Statoil). The other finalist was Ramūnas Mačius, who became Vice President Corporate Affairs Central Europe at Japan Tobacco International (JTI).
- The ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR AWARD was presented to Aurimas Zimnickas, owner and head of business development at UAB Eladus, an innovative distributor of food and beverages. The other finalist was Giedrius Martusevičius, CEO and partner at ProBioSan Laboratory.

Fabulous Summer Adventure in Dzūkija Druskininkai (17 July)

Summer would not be summer without the now deeply-rooted tradition of the BMI Alumni Summer Adventure. This 7th annual edition was by all accounts one of the most exciting and enjoyable ever. More than 60 alumni and family members, organized in 13 teams, gathered near Druskininkai for a day enjoying nature, culture, competition and friendship.

Participants got to know Dzūkija National Park in the course of an orientation challenge. They visited the Merkine pyramid, the Čepkeliai bog, a number of ethnographic villages and more. Some also gathered mushrooms and berries along the way. In fact, it was a team named after mushrooms that won first place in the competition (thus also earning the honour of organizing next year's Summer Adventure).

The winners were:

1ST PLACE – TEAM LEPEŠKOS (chanterelles): Milda Kutaitė (EMBA VI) with Gražvydas Žemaitis and Rasa Lapinskaitė (EMBA XI) with her son Augustas Lapinskas. Congratulations!

2ND PLACE – TEAM UOGOS (berries): Valerija Buzėnienė, Laura Ambrutienė, Živilė Valeišienė and Ligita Ramanauskaitė (all from EMBA XIII).

3RD PLACE – DREAM TEAM: Artūras Abromavičius (EMBA IV) together with his wife Dalia Abromavičienė and Gintautas Vaičius (EMBA XV) with his wife Karolina Vaičienė.

The organizers are especially thankful to the sponsors who provided snacks and beverages for the participants and awarded the winners of the competition with great prizes: Modus Group, Volfas Engelman, Baltic Amadeus, Biovela, Vilniaus aeroklubas, Žirnio krautuvelė, FunRun, Speedway, Slidinėjimo akademija.

5th Annual BMI Alumni Tennis Tournament Bernardinai Garden, Vilnius (18 September)

Ending the clay season at the Bernardinai Garden tennis courts has become a nice tradition. This year 15 alumni gathered to do so on a chilly but sunny autumn Sunday. Players were divided into Advanced and Challenger groups, and several dozen games were needed to determine the season's strongest.

The trophy for the Advanced group went to Giedrius Gečiauskas, who defeated Darius Jasinskis (Class VI). Giedrius participated as a spouse of a BMI alumna, but the organizers accepted his promise to become a BMI student in the near future. Lešek Mikšta (Class X) took the prize for third place, defeating Tomas Valiukevičius (Class XII) in a long and tiring match.

Emotions were high in Challenger group too. Aurimas Zimnickas (Class XVI) defeated classmate Arnoldas Nausėda 7:5. Arnoldas led the match 5:0 before giving away 7 straight games to Aurimas. Vaiva Tylėnė (Class VI) defeating several gentlemen and ladies on the court to take 3rd place.

Many thanks to the sponsors who provided great prizes and beverages: Modus group, Baltic Amadeus, Volf Engelman, Lindt chocolate and Eladus.

BMI Alumni Goes... Racing with Modus Group and CityBee ibis Styles Vilnius Hotel (24 April)

On this spring Sunday, the BMI Alumni community enjoyed a unique driving and orientation game organised by Modus Group and CityBee. Participants were the first to test drive CityBee's stylish Italian FIAT 500s and naughty babies (MINI Ones) in the streets of Vilnius. They did so while completing fun tasks and uncovering details of the history and the future of Modus Group! The winners were awarded with cups, medals and prizes – congratulations to Mindaugas Rudys, Eglė Visockaitė and their baby girl!

BMI Alumni in the Danske Bank Vilnius Marathon Vilnius (10 September)

For the fourth year in a row, a BMI Alumni Association team competed in the 2016 Danske Bank Vilnius Marathon. Many thanks to Danske Bank and Tadas Karkalas (EMBA X) for free registration of the BMI Alumni team in this event and for invitations to the VIP zone.

Process management series of events

BMI Alumni Experts – Lean in Practice I: Towards a Black Belt in Process Management Danske Bank, Vilnius (3 February)

More than 20 BMI alumni gathered for a presentation and discussion led by Vidas Petraitis of BMI EMBA Class X, who is one of the most prominent Lean methodology experts in Lithuania and the head of Lean.lt. It was the first in a series of meetings on Lean.

During the event, Vidas shared his insights on the main principles of Lean, its historical roots and the development of Lean methodology. He also shared a dozen examples of the practical implementation of Lean at both manufacturing and service companies.

Participants got a better understanding of why being brave and humble is important when seeking greater efficiency and how to involve employees in order to obtain hundreds or thousands of new ideas for more effective operations and business development.

BMI Alumni Experts – Lean in Practice II: How Hot Dogs and Lean Go Together EY Baltic, Vilnius (1 March)

This second meeting on Lean was led by Rasa Lapinskaitė of BMI EMBA Class XI, who is Global Process Manager at Group Finance SEB. Rasa demonstrated her black-belt expertise in Lean as she reviewed her experience working on process optimization in the pharmaceutical industry, in the European Lean Group at Statoil, and currently at SEB.

In addition to deepening their know-how on Lean implementation, participants also got a better grasp of the basics of Six Sigma methodology and the Theory of Constraints (TOC). Rasa stressed the importance of top-management involvement and how inappropriate culture "can eat the leanest strategy for breakfast". Later, over a glass of wine, participants shared their own experiences with process and quality improvement, and debated the most effective ways to prepare hot dogs at a leading fuel retailer.

BMI Alumni Goes... Vilniaus Baldai: Lean Furniture Vilniaus Baldai, Vilnius (4 April)

The focus on Lean continued with a visit to Vilniaus Baldai, a publicly listed Lithuanian company which has risen high on furniture giant IKEA's list of worldwide suppliers. CEO Rimantas Vaitkus welcomed the BMI alumni and introduced the company. He detailed how it has developed into a cost-effective and high-quality producer and described aspects of the business model for working with a single customer like IKEA. Then he led a visit through the buzzing 51,000 sq. m. factory where participants got an up-close look at Lean production involving more than 600 employees, experiencing all the sights, sounds and smells. Finally, Alsis Boguslauskas, Head of Warehousing, elaborated further on Lean methodologies used at Vilniaus Baldai.

New Trends in HR & Leadership I: The Battle for Talent Danske Bank, Vilnius (27 April)

Kicking off a BMI Alumni series of events on new trends in HR, Jurgita Lemešiūtė-Freijienė (EMBA Class XV), an expert in recruitment, executive search and employee assessment, led an insightful session. Jurgita reviewed current challenges in the labour market, and especially the difficulties of attracting and retaining top talent. Drawing on global research data and her own experience, she offered tips in practical areas such as using social media to reach candidates, creating an attractive Employer Value Proposition that shows "what you really are", and keeping employees highly motivated and engaged. In a lively discussion, participants examined the importance of a company's image in the labour market as competition for talent heats up.

BMI Alumni Goes... to the Temple of Lean Thermo Fisher Scientific, Vilnius (14 June)

Imagine everything around you is organized according to the principles of Lean: walls, tables, chairs, a meeting room with clear charts and a clock on the walls, computer systems, things on your desk well-aligned, a conveniently laid out canteen... That's exactly what Thermo Fisher Scientific's offices look like!

More than a dozen BMI alumni visited the main headquarters and production site of this company, a week after Verslo Žinios named it the "Investor of the Year" and named its CEO Algimantas Markauskas the "CEO of the Year".

Shifting the company's culture to Lean had a lot to do with those achievements. Many details of that were described and shown to alumni by PPI Business System Manager Alina Štura during the site visit.

People management series of events

New Trends in HR & Leadership II: Authentic Leadership Danske Bank, Vilnius (17 May)

Candles, frankincense and music. Long looks into others' eyes with a focus on one's own emotions and physical changes. Open answers to the question of what you really want and long for. Reflection on states of being like balance, innovation, trust, joy, etc. This was all part of participants' experience during the second in the series of HR & Leadership events, which was led by Remigijus Savickas.

Remigijus guided the gathered BMI alumni through the Authenticity Map which is at the core of Authentic Leadership concept. The map consists of 5 five primal emotional states that create our uniqueness and each person needs to experience. But "holes" in our authenticity map left by certain situations in our life lead to synthetic behaviour and hide our true nature. "A relevant, interesting and useful theme fostering human vitality," is how Asta Dekinienė (EMBA XIV) summarized the event.

Art value & Investment series of events

Artistic Series I: On the Theatre as Art Mažasis Teatras, Vilnius (11 October)

More than 30 BMI alumni, together with friends and relatives, gathered at the "Small Theatre" in Vilnius for the play "Pagaliau, kieno čia gyvenimas?" ("Whose life is it anyway?"), in which Nijolė Normantaitė played the main role. The performance made participants ask important questions about life and value choices. Some alumni admitted that, besides laughing a lot and thinking deeply, they also shed a tear or two!

After that performance, a second and very personal one awaited: Nijolė herself, in the small BMI circle, shared stories from the theatre, her colleagues and fans, and her own personal life. She told stories from her first two books, and we were the first to hear the best stories from her third book before it came out. Those who wanted were able to obtain Nijolė's books with personal dedications.

Artistic Series II: Art Collecting Kunstkamera Art Gallery, Vilnius (15 November)

Is collecting art in Lithuania a passion, duty, mission, investment or madness? That's the question Rolandas Valiunas, himself a collector of Lithuanian art, addressed in a pleasant autumn evening's discussion with BMI alumni. He presented collecting history and traditions in Lithuania and spoke about the older and newer generations of collectors. He also showed the Valiunas Ellex collection, which includes paintings, sculptures, maps, historical engravings, books and silver works by Lithuanian artists. Finally he shared interesting tips about collecting, wonderful personal stories, and even advice on avoiding mistakes.

Then Dr. Simona Makselienė, the director of the auction house Art Market Agency, spoke about trends in the art market and happenings in the Lithuanian auction market. She offered useful information about valuing and pricing works of art. In summary, it was an interesting, educational evening and pleasant for soul.

Change management series of events

Change Management I: Methodology and Gunpowder

EY Baltic, Vilnius (27 October)

Amid clear changes in the political landscape and the weather, BMI Alumni launched a series of events dedicated to change management. Two dozen alumni gathered to start the series with a session led by Linas Šneideris, Senior Manager at EY Baltic, who spoke about why businesses should seek transformation, how to organize transformation programs and what that means practically for organizations and executives. The presentation laid strong methodological foundations for future visits and presentations.

Tadas Karkalas, Head of Baltic Business Strategy and Change at Danske Bank, added some gunpowder to that methodological charge, with financial and intercultural flavour, by sharing his own experiences with transformation at Danske Bank while creating a single business unit in Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia.

Change Management II: Making Utilities More Effective

Wastewater Treatment Plant, Vilnius (22 November)

Continuing the change management series, this event was a case study at a wastewater treatment plant operated by the Vilniaus Vandenys water utility. After a tour of the site and presentation on its main processes, CEO Aidan Ignatavičius explained to participants how the company implemented structural changes earlier this year. The main challenges, he said, were changing the organizational culture and engaging employees and managers at all levels in order to take management quality to new level and rebuild the company's reputation in the eyes of its customers.
